

What people say:

'AssembliesOnline.com is invaluable in my planning and delivery of assemblies, and always my first port of call. Relevant, quirky, inspiring, and always enjoyed and valued by pupils and staff alike. I am so thankful that AssembliesOnline.com is now free and open access.'

*Rev Forbes Walker, Chaplain
Emanuel School, London*

'I am delighted that Nick and Carol Pollard's work is being continued, especially as it has profound implications for the way young people will think and act as global citizens. EthosEducation.org builds upon the influential, inspirational and effective work of Nick and Carol's Global Student Forum. As the DFID programme evaluator of that work I had the privilege of seeing how Sixth Formers of all different faiths and backgrounds engaged in thinking about the big issues of the day and learning how to respond to them in a rational and thoughtful way.'

*Prof Alan Penny
former DFID Senior Regional Education Adviser*

'Take-One.TV is a perfect addition to Tutor Time. I am able to pick it up and run with it without the need for much preparation. The video is pitched well and the excellent questions, with their rigour and challenge, provoke discussion and insight.'

*Cheryl Miller, Head of PSHCE
Loreto Grammar School*

'We have been pleased to continue our support of the important work undertaken by Nick and Carol Pollard. We view their work among Sixth Formers and Religious Education in schools of paramount importance.'

*Eric Thompson, Director
Deo Gloria Trust*
